French Studies C.C.

Curriculum Code: 1785

~~Effective: Fall 2019 – Summer 2024~~

Discontinued Fall 2020; Last Award Summer 2021

Description

This Certificate of Completion in French Studies provides the beginning and intermediate level French language skills and cross-cultural information for students preparing to transfer to college or university programs, qualifying dual-enrolled high school or home school students, or those seeking to reinforce their own professional French language and cultural competencies. In an increasingly international world economy, holders of this Certificate of Completion in French may improve their employment opportunities, in particular since many French companies have ties to Michigan businesses. Students may apply all courses in this curriculum toward other certificates and/or degrees.
