

Legal Studies Post-Bachelor C.A.

Career Community: Public Service Careers

Curriculum Code: 0744

Effective: Fall 2022 – Summer 2027

Description

Pursue your path to studying law or train to be a paralegal. Paralegals generally work under the supervision of an attorney as authorized by law and adhere to recognized ethical standards and rules of professional responsibility. Paralegals investigate the facts; conduct interviews; perform legal research; analyze substantive and procedural laws; draft appropriate documents including: briefs, pleadings, and other forms. Paralegals possess strong technology and case management skills. A Legal Studies degree will prepare you for a variety of career opportunities in private law firms, governmental agencies, corporations, financial institutions, courts systems, legal aid organizations, and other industries. This program is approved by the American Bar Association (ABA). Paralegals are not authorized to engage in the unauthorized practice of law. Not all courses in this program transfer to all colleges. Students planning to transfer should see an academic advisor before enrolling in any course.

Milestone

Completion of LEGL 115 with a 2.0 or higher is a key component for success in completing this program. Knowledge obtained in this course is the foundation for learning in other required courses. Students are encouraged to contact their faculty if they need additional assistance with learning the concepts presented in this course.

Additional Information

Students following this curriculum must have proof of a bachelor's degree on file and entered on their official Lansing Community College transcript before beginning this curriculum.

Legal Studies Program Legal Specialty Courses Transfer Credit Policy*

The Lansing Community College Legal Studies Program may award transfer credit for designated, legal specialty courses on a case-by-case basis determined by the Legal Studies Program Director, subject to approval of the Dean of the Technical Careers Division. The current Legal Studies specialty courses are LEGL 115, LEGL 125, LEGL 212, LEGL 211, LEGL 218, LEGL 222, LEGL 223, LEGL 225, LEGL 228, LEGL 229 and LEGL 270. The following conditions apply to the transfer of these legal specialty courses:

1. Transfer credit may be awarded for substantially similar courses completed with a grade of "C" or higher in an ABA approved, or other post-secondary academically accredited academic Legal Studies program. To be considered "substantially similar", the course must have incorporated the same or similar topics and assignments as the LCC Legal Studies specialty course sought to be credited as evidenced by a catalog description, detailed syllabus, and course reference file.

2. No more than 9 semester credit hours of Legal Studies specialty course credit may be earned toward the Legal Studies Associate Degree or Legal Studies Post-Bachelor Certificate by transfer credit.
3. Transfer credit will not be awarded for LEGL 225 and LEGL 270.

*Notwithstanding the provisions detailed above: in no circumstance will a student be awarded a Legal Studies Associate degree or Certificate unless at least 9 hours of Legal Studies specialty course work has been completed at LCC in a traditional class format.
