EXCITING NEW COURSES FOR FALL

Keep an eye out for three exciting new 3 credit electives beginning Fall Semester 2013

LAW CLINIC: Hands on paralegal work on actual cases in a law office under the supervision of one of our instructors (cases may include family law, social security, landlord-tenant, etc.). You'll have your own work station and you'll work out of the Legal Services of South Central Michigan Office. There will also be a classroom component to the clinic.

DISTRICT COURT PRACTICE: Expert instruction in litigating everything that flows through the local district court. Prof. Sal Gani will be your instructor. He'll cover small claims, landlord-tenant, sobriety court, traffic citations, and the paralegal's role in all of these areas and more. Your guest speakers will be local judges and plan on visiting the courtroom as a class. Sal says this course will train you to hit the ground running from day one!

WORKER'S COMPENSATION: WC is an employee's exclusive remedy if injured or killed on the job. WC takes the place of tort suits in most situations. Prof. Richard Zapala, a WC expert has decades of experience in this area. Prof. Zapala served as Assistant General Counsel In Charge/Accident Fund Co., Legal Department for many years.

In addition to current Michigan WC law, the course will also cover the history and reasons for worker's compensation. Many case examples will be explored. Prof. Zapala promises the course will be practical and easy to follow. And, you'll attend a worker's compensation hearing!

More detail on these exciting new courses to come.

Sign up early, as we expect them to fill-up fast!